Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $1,000 to each victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the probation office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims."

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Edward Alarcon, is hereby committed on Counts Two and Three of the Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 15 months. This term consists of 15 months on each of Counts Two and Three of the Indictment, to be served concurrently.

The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer; At the discretion of the Probation Officer, the drug testing may be terminated after one year;
4. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant; and
5. The defendant shall not to be involved in the importation of any goods that potentially could be subject to trademark, copyright or patent infringement unless he gets specific permission of the Probation Officer before engaging in such work.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, on June 2, 2014 (see, Docket No. 161). In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at the Roybal Federal Building, 255 East Temple Street, Los Angeles, California 90012.

The Court advises defendant of his rights to an appeal.

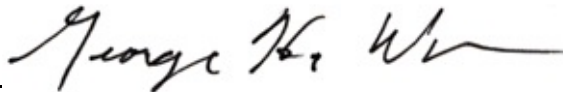

The Court recommends, but does not order, that defendant serve his term at a federal facility in Southern California.

The bond is exonerated upon surrender.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
